

Use good stationery—it is a mark of good taste. It is just as necessary to use stylish stationery as it is to wear stylish clothes. Your letters are judged just as much by the paper you use as by the words you write.

You want proper stationery, don't you? We have it for you. See our full line of Eaton, Crane & Pike's Papeteries.

CAPT. EATON DEAD.

Capt. A. B. Eaton died at his home in Bristol, Va., yesterday morning, and will be buried there this afternoon. He had been in bad health for three or four years, and his death was not unexpected.

He resided here over twenty years, and had charge of the B. S. G. & P. V. Ry., where his face was familiar to all our people, who esteemed him highly.

He is survived by his wife and six children, Hugh H. Eaton, Mrs. Sheppe, Mrs. Smith, Misses Ethel, Bert and Vic Eaton.

Capt. Eaton was a Confederate Veteran, enlisting in an Alabama regiment, his native state. During the latter part of the war he was stationed at Bristol, in charge of the Alabama Salt Works, at Saltville, Va., where salt was made for the State of Alabama. These works, as well as those of all the States were destroyed by Gen. Stoneman's raid in December, 1864, when Capt. Eaton was taken a prisoner and confined in Camp Chase until the war ended. Soon after the war Capt. Eaton married Miss N. J. Ayers, a sister of Gen. Ayers, and moved to Memphis, Tenn., where he resided until he came here.
